

I am reaching age 65 and received an email message from CPFB on my monthly payout details. How do I verify that the email is legitimate?

To verify whether the email you received from us is legitimate, please check the following: The Board will only send digital notifications to the email address registered in our records. You may verify or update your contact details in CPF Account settings with your Singpass.