

How long does it take to process my application to withdraw my retirement savings using my pension/annuity?

We will pay your retirement savings to your bank account generally within seven working days after we have received all necessary information. However, we may require more time if we need additional information/documents such as outstanding tax liabilities with IRAS.