

How can I check the status of my application to withdraw my retirement savings using my pension/annuity?

If your application to withdraw your retirement savings using your pension/annuity is approved, you will receive a withdrawal advice by mail after we have processed the payment to your bank account. Alternatively, you can also check the status of your application by logging on to cpf.gov.sg.