

Can I choose to set aside my Full Retirement Sum with a mixture of property and cash, and withdraw part of my Retirement Account savings if I own a foreign property?

No, you are not able to withdraw part of your Retirement Account savings if you own a foreign property. To secure the refund of your CPF savings when your property is sold or transferred in the future, your property must be located in Singapore.