

Can I appeal for the Silver Support Scheme?

There may be some seniors on the margins who do not qualify automatically, but may still be deserving of Silver Support (SS). These seniors can write in to CPF Board for a review of their case. Even if you do not qualify for SS, there are other schemes in place to help you, if you are in need of assistance. You may qualify for SS in future years if your circumstances warrant additional retirement support.