

If I have withdrawn under the Reduced Life Expectancy scheme, can I continue to use my Ordinary Account savings to service my housing loan?

Yes, you can continue to use your Ordinary Account savings to service your housing loan, subject to existing housing rules, even if you have withdrawn under the Reduced Life Expectancy scheme.