

I am the appointed donee/deputy for my next-of-kin. How can I apply to withdraw his CPF savings?
To apply for withdrawal of your next-of-kin's CPF savings, you can make an appointment to visit any of our CPF Service Centres and bring along the following original documents: 1. Medical report from an accredited doctor stating that the member lacks mental capacity permanently; 2. Lasting Power of Attorney or Court Order; 3. Trust bank account statement or passbook; and 4. Your NRIC.
