

What is HOMES?

The Household Means Eligibility System (HOMES) is a Government system supporting public schemes, including the Silver Support Scheme, in their conduct of means-tests as part of their assessment in determining the level of assistance for them.