

If I own a property, can I still withdraw the Special Account (SA) savings that have been transferred to my Retirement Account when my SA is closed?

After your Special Account is closed, you can continue to withdraw your Retirement Account savings above the Basic Retirement Sum (BRS) if you own an eligible property. Find out more information on the withdrawal of CPF savings for property owners.