I was born before 1958 and have not met my Full Retirement Sum. What will happen to my Special Account savings that I can currently withdraw?

At the point your Special Account(SA) is closed, the amount that you could have withdrawn from your SA will be transferred to your Ordinary Account and remains withdrawable. You will be able to check the amounts transferred from your CPF statement in early 2025.